Anime's Favorite Magic High School Coming to a Theater Near You!

SANTA MONICA, CA (June 14, 2017) – Ticket sales begin today for the nationwide theatrical release of The irregular at magic high school THE MOVIE -The Girl Who Summons the Stars-. Following the U.S. premiere at Anime Expo in Los Angeles, California this summer, the film will be released to the public on July 28 and distributed by Azoland Pictures. Tickets are available now on the official website <http://mahouka.us/theater/>.

One of the most prolific franchises within the anime community, The irregular at magic high school THE MOVIE -The Girl Who Summons the Stars- comes three years after the television series premiered, with an all new story by author Tsutomu Sato. Known simply as Mahouka by its most dedicated and enthusiastic fan base, The irregular at magic high school was adapted from a light novel series which continues to be one of the top selling light novels in Japan with over 7.7 million copies sold.

Fans are encouraged to visit the official website for future announcements and check out the hashtag #IrregularMovie on social media.

About The irregular at magic high school The Movie -The Girl Who Summons the Stars-:

Many months have passed and the spring season is almost upon them. The “irregular” elder brother Tatsuya and his smart younger sister Miyuki realize that their first year at Magic High School is about to come to a close. The siblings and their friends decide to spend spring break at a private villa on Ogasawara Island. Tatsuya and the others make the most of their brief vacation until a young girl named Kokoa appears before them. The mysterious young girl who escaped from a naval base tells Tatsuya her one wish...
